School life is the most joyous period in life, perhaps you may not know. The ultimate purpose of your coming to the school is for your transformation into a fine person who can live with happiness and self esteem in this modern world. Make this your definite goal throughout your life.

Your Alma Mater must be so precious to you. This particular spot on the surface of the earth gives you the necessary nutrients for your growth and development. Feel proud of your school always. Feel proud to be a product of Delta.

You must be punctual in attendance and school work. Whenever you prepare for an examination aim the highest mark in each subject. Participate in all competitions as much as possible. Make an identity in the school of yourself by proving your talents in sports and arts activities.

Have an open mind, to appreciate anything positive others are doing, and develop good and free communication.

'Give respect and take respect' should be your prima facie attitude. Service to the society through helping the needy must be a passion for you. Respect your parents, teachers, elders, and sometimes your younger ones also. Learn to face difficult situations in life right from childhood.

Be smart in listening and speaking and reading. 'Nobody reads anything for the second time'.

Chances are around us. 'exploit the chances'. Chances never wait for us but we have to embrace chances.

Keep smiling and be happy all times, so that you become one of the neediest sons of the Earth.

Wishing you 'Good luck' throughout the year.
