Dedicated, nurturing teachers, strive to inspire and encourage students by identifying and seizing every opportunity to help and motivate the students.

CHACKO ABRAHAM KALLIVAYALIL(PAPPAN) FOUNDER

Chacko Abraham Kallivayalil (Pappan) could be an inspiration to all students. His own limited education due to lack of opportunities in his time was one of his deep regrets. However, he embodies many qualities representative of a wellrounded education – an enquiring mind, a deep interest in nature and innovative methods, his active involvement with people and the community at large, a strong determination to improve his life and of those around him. He understood well, the importance of education and its ability to transform lives. That, along with his tremendous faith in God and caring for those around him, was the essence of his strength and success as an individual. His motto was 'Never give up.' KPMP School is dedicated to the memory of Sri. C.A. Kallivayalil and his values. Michael A Kallivayalil, son of Sri Pappan Kallivayalil, is the founder of the school.

AIM

The aim of the school is to provide overall development of the child-the physical, the intellectual and the spiritual. Importance is given to academics and co-curricular activities. The institution is driven with an aim to mould the children to be able to live as good citizens of the nation. We strongly believe that the concept of education encompasses more than mere learning from books. We strive to instill in the hearts of our students, the importance of love, compassion and patience - necessary qualities to cultivate and nurture successful individuals and responsible citizens.
