HOLISTIC APPROACH

The God given talents of the children are developed through a variety of activities. Due attention is given for learning. The curriculum incorporates curricular and co-curricular activities as well. Allround development of the child in all domains of learning such as cognitive, affective and phyco-motor are given the required importance. To inculcate leadership qualities in pupils they are divided on the line of houses and different types of activities like camps, training course etc.

VALUE EDUCATION

In the present era of erosion of moral values we have stressed on the importance of value education which guide them to have a deep relationship with God as loving Father. The pupils are also encouraged to have a positive attitude to treat their fellow beings as brothers and sisters irrespective of their religion, caste, creed and locality.
